

Experienced Military Veteran Leadership Development Program (EMVLDP)

The Program

Johnson & Johnson offers an experienced program targeted at senior transitioning military leaders. This 18-month Program includes robust onboarding, customized development, and two nine-month, diversified rotations designed to support the transition from a military to corporate career with Johnson & Johnson.

Rotations extend to various parts of the business, potentially including our corporate functions (ex. HR, finance, IT, etc.), our three business sectors (Consumer Products, Pharmaceuticals, and Medical Devices), and Supply Chain.

The Johnson & Johnson Experienced Military Veteran Leadership Development Program (EMVLDP) is designed to:

- Provide senior military leaders with a structured pathway to transition into Johnson & Johnson
- Offer rich enterprise exposure, diversified rotations, robust integrated curriculum, and connections with a deep network of cross-functional and cross-sector leaders
- Develop critical capabilities and experiences through rotations, coaching, and programmatic components
- Build strong relationships within the Johnson & Johnson community to assist with effective J&J navigation and networking as leaders assimilate into the organization
- After successful completion from the program, participants will move into roles in the organization matched to background, development, and aspiration
